The department has been appointed to lead and coordinate Outcome 13 (An inclusive and responsive social protection system) for 2014-2019 MTSF.

The Millennium Development Goals (MDGs), the National Development Plan (NDP), MTSF and Provincial Programme of Action continue to provide important foundation to the vision, mission and strategic objectives of the Department towards the achievement of social protection. These important guiding documents, together with the broader mandate of the Department; continue to inform the strategic and operational thrust of the Departmental interventions in each year.

Based on the mandate as reflected, the department has adopted a dual strategy which firstly focuses on the immediate role assigned to social protection as a mechanism to ensure that no-one slips below a minimum standard of living and secondly on a more transformative and developmental role – i.e. working together with relevant economic and sectoral policies the objective is to move towards a more preventative, inclusive growth path and developmental outcomes.
In its broader strategic approach the department will on the following key interventions:

- Defined social floor so that households that have not achieved the basic standards of living are assisted.
- Responsive to the needs, realities and conditions of livelihood of those who the system is intended to benefit.
- Be based on a principle of building and utilizing the capabilities of individuals, households and communities and avoiding the creation of dependency and stigma.
- Flexible and capable of responding to rapidly changing scenarios and the emergence of new challenges (for example, the impact of HIV/AIDS) and of meeting the changing needs of individuals across the life cycle.
- Improving efficiency in the delivery services.
- Reducing the administrative bottlenecks that prevent people from accessing benefits.
- Social security mechanisms should be in place to cover risks associated with informal employment.

Specific care is taken to align each programme with the new budget structure for Social Development, NDP, and MTSF 2014-2019 priorities. In support of government’s strategic intent to overcome the challenges of poverty, inequality and unemployment.

The department’s commitment to building human and social capital remains unshaken, in order to improve the quality of human resources of Mpumalanga province. This will be achieved through (inter alia) the Early Childhood Development programme.

Programmes that are aimed at building and strengthening governmental, family and community capacities to provide a supportive environment for orphans and girls and boys affected and infected by HIV and AIDS are intensified through programmes that are aimed at social behavioral change. This includes programmes to address the psychosocial problems encountered by children affected by HIV and AIDS. Programmes that are offered to Victims of Abuse are linked to economic empowerment opportunities and transform those that have capacity into economically viable NPOs.
Government values its partnerships with all sectors of society, in tackling challenges that affect all families and the society in general. All the transfers or funds and support made to NPOs through the department have a primary objective of building the capacity of these organisations to deliver services to poor communities at optimum level. It is therefore imperative for the department to provide capacity building designed to foster capacity in that sector, especially those in resource-constrained communities. The department believes that capacity building of the sector should receive prominence because it is through the nurturing of grassroots capability, competencies and collective action that communities will realize the common goal of sustainable development.

It is therefore with this in mind that the department continues to collaborate with its partners in executing its constitutional mandate. While these are short to medium term relief measures in its efforts to break the back of poverty, there is no doubt that they impact on the livelihoods of the poor and the vulnerable. Collaboration with other Departments in driving the social protection agenda indeed go a long way towards improving the lives of people who suffer from the indignity of generational poverty.
2.1 Definition

Early Childhood Development means a process of emotional, cognitive, sensory, spiritual, moral, physical, social and communication development of children from birth to school-going age.

This programme promotes social protection, and ensures reduced vulnerability. Early Childhood Development is an important stage in enhancing the cognitive and human development of the child. Investing in Early Childhood Development is not only a means of giving children a good start, but also contributes to the socioeconomic development of the province.

Provision of Early Childhood Development (ECD) services is one of the key activities which are regulated by the Children’s Act. An ECD Centre refers to: any building or premises maintained or used, whether or not for gain, for the admission, protection and temporary care of more than six children away from their parents. Depending on registration, an ECD centre can admit babies, toddlers and/or pre-school aged children.
The Department of Social Development has the responsibility of providing support to ECD Centres in order to ensure that they do comply with Norms and Standards as spelt out in the Children’s Act which will in turn ensure that the children who are in ECD Centres are safe.

2.2 Registration of Early Childhood Development Centres

The Children’s act requires that ALL ECD Centres catering for children 0-4 years whether private or community based MUST register with the Department of Social Development.

Application for registration is therefore lodged with the local social Development that will then assess the Centre to determine if it does meet the minimum Norms and Standards. Such assessment is also informed by the recommendations of the environmental health officers.

2.3 To operate an ECD Centre

You must:

- Possess an appropriate ECD qualification, skills, training and
- Have a minimum of three years of working in the Early Childhood Development field
- Depending on the outcome of the assessment a certificate is then issued spelling out the details of the registration and conditions if any.

2.4 Funding of ECD Centres

Depending on the budget available the Department provides subsidy to the children who are in ECD Centres who fall within the set means test, which is calculated as follows:

- If the parents earn a combined income of R 3 500 p.m. or R 42 000 per annum my child qualifies for subsidy.
- If parents are recipients of surviving on social grant, the children qualify to be considered for subsidy.
- If parents are unemployed the child qualifies for consideration for subsidy.
The subsidy is further broken down as follows:

- 45% for nutrition (buying food for the children)
- 35% for stipends, and
- 20% for administration.

It needs to be noted that registration does not necessarily mean that an ECD Centre will be funded.

2.5 Monitoring of ECD Centres

Over and above the registration and funding of the ECD Centres, the Department has dedicated staff that monitors ECD Centers on a monthly basis. The monitoring is done to ensure that the required standard is adhered to at all times and to identify areas where there is support needed. It is the Department’s view that in giving children the best start in life it has to start at the ECD Centres. The department want to ensure that there is continuous communication that takes place between Social Development and all ECD Centre’s so that problems can be identified and addressed before it can impact on the children.
3.1 Background

This is done because South Africa is a signatory to the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, the UN Committee on the Rights of the Child, the African Charter on the Rights and Welfare of the Child (to mention but a few) which seek to protect children who are suspected to be offenders from torture and abuse even by organs of state. These have been put in place to prevent children arrested for crimes that they are alleged to have committed and kept in police cells for a long period without finalization of their cases, tortured sometimes fatally, not given fair trial in court, appearing in court without legal representation.

Services are provided in terms of new legislation, the Child Justice Act No. 75 of 2008, the Children’s Act No. 38 of 2005 in the form of:

- Prevention programmes – where children and youth are empowered with information about the consequences of crime and alternatives to make better choices in life through awareness campaigns and life skills programmes.

- Statutory services – where they are assessed by probation officers and referred to diversion programmes in order to assist them with more intensified and need based programs to address the causes of criminal behavior.

- Statutory services rendered to children include inter alia assessment, diversion, Home Based Supervision, correctional supervision, and After Care Services.

- Child and Youth Care Facilities – children can be placed in these facilities while waiting for their cases to be finalized. Secure Care Centers are used to keep children awaiting trial to avoid keeping them in police cells and prisons.

Mpumalanga Province has only one Secure Care Centre known as Hendrina Secure Care Center. In other cases children are sentenced to spend some time in secure care facilities to attend programs for development and empowerment.

Services are also provided to adults in conflict with the law in terms of the Criminal Procedure Act No. 51 of 1977, where probation officers are requested by court to compile pre-sentence reports to assist the court to make the most suitable decision in sentencing an accused person.

Adults are also sentenced to Correctional Supervision under the supervision of a probation officer or a Correctional Officer.
